

Hi everyone.

Here are the results see the [hyperlinklooper16 for the results). I'm still working on getting all of this year first timers on my email list but wanted to get this out to those I already have. Mistakes, questions, or trouble opening, let me know. I'm trying to post as many pictures as I can on @thelooppaderace on Instagram. Give a follow if you want and check out the pics. This is instead of doing a big ol' website.

I didn't properly acknowledge how much work my wife, Kara, puts into this event every year. She deserves more credit than I can give her. Poor girl was just helping out her over zealous boyfriend when all of this started.

Thank you to you all for coming down. It charges up my stoke tank to be around the quality people that make up The Loop Groop.

Long live paddling.

Dan
